

Part-Time Director of Music St. Patrick's Episcopal Church in Dunwoody, GA

St. Patrick's Episcopal Church in Dunwoody, Georgia seeks a part-time Director of Music. We are looking for a joyful, innovative person with a vision for partnering with us in the ongoing creative work of sustaining and growing our music ministry in a variety of musical expressions and combinations. Important in this work is both the nurturing of community among the choir and instrumentalists and the development of congregational singing for our liturgical life.

While the position requires keyboard proficiency (piano and organ) and familiarity with and sensitivity to Anglican liturgy, equally important are a passion for worship, a deep joy in musical diversity and variety, and an ability to attract and inspire persons to participate in the music ministry of the church.

The choir at presents consists of eight to ten voices most weeks. Participating instrumentalists include violin, acoustic guitar, electric bass and flute. Our congregation has other voices and instrumentalists that could be drawn into the community.

Duties for the Director of Music include but are not limited to:

Collaborating with the Rector for seasonal liturgical planning and weekly meetings with the clergy in the preparation of Sunday worship;

Participating at weekly staff meetings as part of a collaborative leadership team;

At the Sunday 10:30 a.m. service, directing the voices and instrumentalists and accompanying on piano and organ;

Rehearsing with the choir, instrumentalists and other musical groups prior to the service and on one evening during the week;

Developing and supporting the Youth and Children's Music Ministry for occasional offerings at the 10:30 a.m. and other services.

Planning, playing, singing and directing at special services including Christmas Eve, Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, Holy Week, Easter, and Pentecost; and Attracting and coaching persons in the formation of a vibrant music program.

Resumes may be sent to Cowen Harter, Interim Director of Communications:
